

THE LEGAL MOVEMENTS AGAINST MAYOR HALL AND HIS CONTEMPLATED ARREST.

The Legal Movements Against Mayor Hall and His Contemplated Arrest.

MR. TWEED AND HIS PROPERTY.

The Order of Judge Brady as to Its Non-Disposal.

A Resignation in the Comptroller's Office.

At the Mayor's Office.

The tongue of rumor was very busy yesterday with the name of the Mayor. Early in the morning and until late in the afternoon there were many inquirers and "interviewers" seeking to find their way to the presence of His Worship. This desire was greatly strengthened when the rumor of the resignation of the Mayor appeared in the publication of the morning papers of the resolutions of the Committee of seventy calling upon the Chief Magistrate of the city to resign, and threatening to take legislative action in January to compel him to vacate the civic chair. A Herald reporter had a conversation with His Honor on this subject, and it was evident that the resolutions of the Committee of seventy did not create any uneasiness in the Mayor's mind. He said that he was not at all disturbed by the action of the Committee of seventy, and that he was not at all disturbed by the action of the Committee of seventy. He said that he was not at all disturbed by the action of the Committee of seventy, and that he was not at all disturbed by the action of the Committee of seventy.

Another Movement Against Mr. Tweed.

Mr. Peckham, one of the counsel associated with the Attorney General, has been directed by the cases of the Committee of seventy, applied for an order for an order to restrain Mr. Tweed from disposing of his property. Though it may be considered rather late in the day for action of this kind, there is no doubt that some very valuable property can be secured for the benefit of the city if the order is granted.

The Board of Aldermen.

The Board met yesterday, President Coman in the chair. A very large number of "General Orders" calling for street improvements were adopted, the desire being to clear the calendar of all unfinished "General Orders" of the resolutions of the Board.

The Comptroller's Office.

Mr. W. A. Hall, Comptroller of Accounts, in the Auditing Bureau, has resigned. The resignation will take effect on the first of December.

The Tax Office.

There was received by the Board of Taxes yesterday $720,470 80 for taxes.

The Department of Parks.

The temporary opening of the new bridge for foot-traffic is countermanded, as its condition is found to be too dangerous, consequent upon the work of repairs now being forwarded.

Another Payment to the "Large Pipe Men."

Comptroller Green again delegated Mr. A. S. Cady to pay the laborers and others employed on the "alterations of the Aqueduct," and Mr. Cady, with his corps of assistants, was yesterday engaged in the payment of the wages of the laborers.

The Police Force Salaries Paid.

Andrew H. Green, Comptroller, yesterday deposited to the credit of the Police Department $200,000, to be used by that department in payment of the salaries of its officers and employees for the month of November.

Another Inspector Surrenders.

John Whelan, 125 East Broadway, another Seventh ward election inspector, surrendered himself yesterday afternoon to Justice Blake. The others, who were to have done likewise, thought better of it and did not put in an appearance as they had promised.

O'Donovan Rossa vs. Tweed.

In consequence of O'Donovan Rossa having written to the Committee of seventy, intimating that he was prepared to contest the Second ward of the Fourth district on the grounds of fraudulent voting, and could easily procure abundant evidence, the committee have given him instructions to call a meeting in the Seventh ward next week, and invite his friends that Commissioner Davidson will have notices given to take the affidavits of those prepared to give evidence.

BEEDFORD'S BOMBHELLS.

He is Determined to Bring the Guilty to Justice—The Grand Jury have Their Time Extended—The Notorious "General" Green's Case and Other Business of the Court.

Soon after Judge Bedford took his seat on the bench yesterday morning the Grand Jury came into court, and His Honor addressed them as follows in reply to their request for an extension of time in order to finish the business brought before them during the present term, and which relates more particularly to the task of indicting the members of the late infamous ring, which so

SHAMEFULLY DISOBEYED OUR CITY.

Judge Bedford said: Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen of the Grand Jury—in compliance with your request made yesterday in open court, I have carefully examined the law, and I feel satisfied I have the right to extend any term of this Court for the dispatch of business and for the purpose of furthering the ends of justice. In order that each one of you gentlemen of the Grand Jury and myself

THE COMMUNITY AT LARGE.

may fully realize and thoroughly understand my duty and the correctness of purpose in carrying out the designs of my late Grand Jury which shall this day extend the present term of this Court until the third Monday in December, and to the 15th day of December, and I hereby direct the Clerk of the Court to enter on the minutes an order to that effect.

THE GRAND JURY.

In their efforts to bring to punishment the notorious offenders against decency and morality who have brought odium upon the fair name of the metropolis, and made the name of New York a byword of scorn throughout the length and breadth of the land.

"GENERAL" GREENHILL.

The case of that noted criminal "General" Greenhill, who was arrested on the 15th inst., and who was committed to the custody of the Sheriff of the County of New York, is now pending in the Court of Sessions.

AN INGENIOUS FORGER.

How a Crafty Merchant Ran the Machine-Lottery Tickets, Gambling and Degradation—Flooding the Market with Spurious Paper—Flight of the Culprit.

It is refreshing to think of the numerous devices resorted to by the members of the nineteenth century, since almost every day we are made to light some novel method of peculation and fraud. In fact, to such perfection have the means adopted to swindle the honest portion of the community arrived that the most astounding robberies fail to surprise those actively engaged in business, the result being that mercantile men are constantly on the qui vive for self-protection, but are not unprepared for the constant revelations of glaring dishonesty. Although the case of Saroni does not in itself present any novelty in the course he pursued to scatter his

THE REFORM MOVEMENT IN BROOKLYN.

An Address from the Committee to the Citizens.

The sub-committees of the Citizens' and Rink Reform Committees were, from some reason, inactive yesterday. In the general excitement over the Mayor's call to resign, the Rink Reform Committee, in preparation for Thanksgiving Day, the day almost forgotten. The address to the citizens which the Rink Committee have had in preparation for some days past was completed yesterday and the following is a copy—

THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK.

The Work of Reorganization and the Thanksgiving Turkey Lull.

Owing to the excitement about Thanksgiving turkeys and the many other things which go to make Thanksgiving Day the day it is all over the Union, the politicians of the reorganizing stripe had not much to do or say yesterday. However, there was a great deal of hot-nobbing and wire-pulling going on among the leaders, and the plans that are to be adopted furnished abundant food for the outside gossipers all day long who had managed to get a hint of the details.

Mr. Tilden was all day occupied with matters which he pretended had nothing to do with the reorganization of parties; but it is very well known that the head and front of the reform democracy, as Samuel really is, has been, and still is, up to his ears in business solely connected with the grand strategies of what the world has had as yet but a very weak inkling. He is extremely reticent as to what the plans when perfected will be, but enough is known to justify the assertion that the conservatives are heart and soul in favor of the reform idea, and that the "new party" will not turn out to be, as some people have predicted, a bubble that can be burst by passing an opposition bill.

There are two things to be certain, and that the reorganizers do not intend to confine their efforts to the metropolis, and that the real upshot of the whole movement will be a formal declaration of the reorganizers of the city that they heartily concur with the policy of the "assassins."

And that they are quite willing to join hands with whatever organization has for its chief aim and intent the overthrow of the Grant administration. There are no more to be said for the moment, but do not go into the movement with a good heart, but then again influences have been brought to bear which have compelled them to, apparently, at least, coincide with the views of the majority and "do the best thing" they can under upward circumstances. It is not to be denied that the democrats not only holding primaries by wards or Assembly districts, but also of electing delegates to the State Convention, have been very active in the reorganization movement, and that the rank and file of the party are powerless to resist them. Of course this is all honorable and commendable, and it is to be removed by confining the delegations entirely to those who do not hold office, it would also bring the reorganization movement into the hands of the republican organizations everywhere a class of men who will give renewed strength and vitality to the reorganization movement, and will silence all such a Convention will silence all cavilers on this subject, and conduce to the unity and harmony of the party everywhere.

A NATIONAL REFORM PARTY.

An Appeal to the People.

To THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—

There is a large number of thinking men in the country at this time who are considering the subject of a national reform party, and who are looking for a leader to guide them in their efforts to secure the re-election of Mr. Tilden.

Matters have come to such a pass that the continuance of them will unquestionably lead to serious consequences. Some know the sources of the trouble, others are ignorant of them. Those who have seen most and thought most on the subject have come to the conclusion that continuance in office is the great source of the evil. It has become the fashion among the politicians, as soon as they are elected to office, to commence a course of action to secure their re-election, and all their public acts are shaped to this end. Public interests are forgotten, and private ones alone thought of and worked for, the result being that the country is in a state of anarchy, and the people are in a state of confusion.

It is thought that nearly one hundred thousand dollars of forged paper has been destroyed, and that the rest of the paper has been sold at a low price.
